What Else You Should Know

- A link to another account or a line of credit is a less expensive option than an overdraft. A single larger overdraft will result in just one fee, as opposed to multiple smaller overdrafts. Good account management is the best way to avoid overdrafts. Use our mobile banking, Internet banking, and telephone banking services to keep track of your balance. For additional financial education resources, please visit www.mymoney.gov.
- The $34 Overdraft Fee is the same fee amount that is charged if a check is returned as unpaid. If multiple items overdraw your account on the same day, each item will be assessed an appropriate Overdraft Fee or a Return Fee of $34. All fees and charges will be included as part of the Overdraft Privilege limit amount. Your account may become overdrawn in excess of the Overdraft Privilege limit amount as a result of a fee.
- If your account balance remains overdrawn for longer than 5 business days, we will charge your account a daily overdraft fee of $6 for each of the consecutive business days the account remains overdrawn, beginning with day 6.
- For consumer accounts, there is a limit of 5 Overdraft Fees ($170) per day we will charge. We will not charge an Overdraft Fee if a consumer account is overdrawn by $5 or less. For business accounts, there is a limit of 10 Overdraft Fees ($340) per day we will charge. We will not charge an Overdraft Fee if a business account is overdrawn by $5 or less.
- We generally post items in the following order: credit transactions, such as deposits, are processed first; debit transactions, or withdrawals, from your account are processed as follows: electronic items, such as debit card, ATM and Preauthorized transactions, then checks. The items are processed in order the received and appropriate time and/or serial number order within each category. Items that cannot be determined "in order the received" will be processed in a high to low order. However, because of the many ways we allow you to access your account, the posting order of individual items may differ from these general policies. Holds on funds (described below) and the order in which transactions are posted may impact the total amount of Overdraft Fees or Return Fees assessed.
- Although under payment system rules, Independent Bank may be obligated to pay some unauthorized debit card transactions, Independent Bank will not authorize debit card or ATM transactions unless there are accessible funds (including Overdraft Coverage Options) to cover the transactions and any fee(s).
- Independent Bank authorizes debit card transactions using the accessible balance. We may place a hold on deposited items in accordance with our Deposit Account Agreement and Disclosure, which will reduce the amount of your accessible balance. On accounts with Standard Coverage, the accessible balance for authorizing ATM and everyday debit card transactions is the current balance, as reflected in your account when viewed in online and/or mobile banking, less any holds on certain deposited checks pursuant to Regulation CC, and pending debit card transactions, plus any available Overdraft Protection. On accounts with Extended Coverage, the accessible balance for authorizing ATM and everyday debit card transactions includes the Overdraft Privilege limit. Independent Bank pays checks, ACH items, recurring debit card transactions, teller transactions, ATM and everyday debit card transactions based on the ledger balance, upon settlement of such transactions, less any holds on certain deposited checks pursuant to Regulation CC. The ledger balance is the balance of the account at the end of a business day, after all credits and debits have posted, plus any available Overdraft Coverage Options as applicable.
- Please be aware that none of the Overdraft Coverage options are reflected in your available balance when viewed through online banking, mobile banking or Independent Bank's ATMs.
- Independent Bank will reduce the accessible balance for authorized debit card transactions until the transactions settle (usually within two business days) or as permitted by payment system rules. In some cases, the reduction for the authorized debit card transaction may exceed the amount of the settled transaction. When the transaction settles, your account will update to reflect the accessible balance. If your account is overdrawn after the transaction settles, an Overdraft Fee(s) may be assessed.
- Except as described in this letter, Independent Bank may not pay items if your account does not contain available funds (including the Overdraft Privilege limit) to cover the item(s) and the amount of any fee(s).
- Independent Bank may suspend your debit card if your account is overdrawn more than thirty-two (32) consecutive calendar days. Debit cards on your account will remain suspended until you make sufficient deposits so that your account balance is positive.
- If your debit card is suspended, you will be unable to use your debit card for purchases or to access your account at the ATM, and if you use your debit card for recurring payments, e.g., utilities, you are responsible to make other arrangements for your recurring debit payment(s).
- Overdraft Privilege is not a line of credit; it is a discretionary overdraft service that can be withdrawn at any time without prior notice.
- Overdraft Privilege may be discontinued if you default on any loan (30 days or more past due, bankruptcy) or other obligation to us, your account becomes subject to any legal or administrative order, garnishment or levy, or if you fail to maintain this account in good standing by not bringing your account to a positive balance within 32 days for a minimum of one business day.

- Depositor and each Authorized Signatory will continue to be liable, jointly and severally, for all overdraft and fee amounts, as described in the Deposit Account Agreement and Disclosures. The total (negative) balance, including all fees and charges, is due and payable upon demand.
- New accounts opened within the past 33 calendar days have an introductory limit of $100.00. After 33 days, the Overdraft Privilege limit is $1,000 for eligible business accounts and $600 for eligible personal accounts.
